About GNDEC

IEEE
COMPUTER
SOCIETY

Guru Nanak Dev Engineering College (GNDEC), Bidar, established in August 1980, is a premier center for technical education in Karnataka. Founded by the Prabandhak Committee Gurudwara, Sri Nanak Jhira Saheb, Bidar, the institution has been a pioneer in shaping future engineers and leaders.

GNDEC is approved by the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and affiliated with Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU), Belgaum. It is also NBA-accredited, ensuring excellence in engineering education. Over the years, GNDEC has grown from an initial intake of 120 students across three disciplines to a thriving academic hub with 2,800+ students across multiple undergraduate and postgraduate programs. The institution houses state-of-the-art administrative buildings, an auditorium, a central library, modern laboratories, workshops, seminar halls, digital classrooms, and hostel accommodations.

Departments at GNDEC:

Undergraduate Programs

- Computer Science & Engineering (CSE)
- Information Science & Engineering (ISE)
- Electronics & Communication Engineering (ECE)
- Mechanical Engineering (ME)
- Electrical & Electronics Engineering (EEE)
- Civil Engineering (CE)
- Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning (AI & ML)
- Computer Science & Engineering (Data Science)

Postgraduate Programs

- Master of Business Administration (MBA)
- Master of Technology (M.Tech)

Why GNDEC?

- Spacious & pollution-free campus
- Wi-Fi enabled campus & digital classrooms
- Strong industry collaboration & training programs
- Well-equipped R&D and innovation labs
- Affordable fee structure with quality education
- Diverse student community from multiple states & countries
- Separate Wi-Fi-enabled hostels for boys & girls with gym & indoor sports facilities

GNDEC continues to uphold its legacy of excellence in education, innovation, and research, preparing students to excel in the ever-evolving world of technology.
